From our President:

Ned Farley, Ph.D.

Well, here I am again! It hardly feels like a full year has passed since I left the role of AGLBIC President, yet as I look back, I can see all that has been done in my role as Past-President (and yes, President-elect). It has been a busy time for AGLBIC, and under the assured guidance of Colleen Connolly, who I feel privileged to have worked with so closely for the past two years, AGLBIC has continued to move towards stabilization in the midst of declining membership across ACA and its divisions. In the past two months, we seem to have rebounded a bit, picking up new members rather than losing them. I clearly see that Colleen's leadership along with the work of a fantastic board and cadre of volunteers has been the force that has allowed for these small but important successes.

Having said that, I am also very proud of the fact that our long awaited journal is finally taking off. The board approved the final contract with Haworth Press at our Board Meeting in Kansas City, the contract has been signed, and I am currently working closely with the Journal Publications staff at Haworth to finalize plans on several fronts. I am finding them very easy to work with,

Colleen Connolly, Ph.D.

Honoring the Cycles of "Goodbye"

I send all of you a warm and appreciative "goodbye" as my presidential year comes to an end. Advancements were made in many areas, and I would like to summarize some of the strides made this year.

Website: Rhodes Gibson created a beautiful layout and sleek format for the AGLBIC website. Rob Mate collaborated with Rhodes in this process. We created a "password protect" area to allow for members-only access to some areas. I have compiled documents and am working with Rhodes to place membership and leadership documents of interest on the site for future reference. Some documents, records, photos, etc., will be archived on the website for safekeeping and for leaders to access in the future.

Journal: Ned's commitment to establishing a hard-copy journal has paid off. The Journal of GLBT Issues in Counseling, published by Haworth Press, is a reality! Ned is the Journal Editor, and I encourage you to submit manuscripts to the journal and do what you can to support its success.

Nominations for AGLBIC Positions

While we are barely past our AGLBIC Business Meeting in Kansas City where we closed nominations for open positions to be voted on in the ACA elections this coming winter, it is never too early to consider submitting a nomination for positions that will be discussed at our Business Meeting in Atlanta in April, 2005. You may self-nominate for any open position, or nominate another, although it is suggested that you check with the individual you wish to nominate to see if they are willing to serve. Those nominated must be an AGLBIC member in good standing at the time we formally vote on nominations next April. The following positions will be open for nomination: President-elect-elect (3 year term, President-elect, President, Past-President); Board Trustee (3 year term); Governing Council Representative (3 year term); CACREP Representative (3 year term).

Please forward any nominations directly to Colleen Connolly, Past-President and Chair of Nominations Committee at cconnolly@txstate.edu.

and agreeable to our needs as a division. They really want this journal to work, and are working hard to insure that we will be happy with the results. First up will be the “official unveiling” of the journal which will be done with press releases, so we are just finishing working on the wording. Next will be negotiations around timelines for getting the first edition out. In the meantime, I am working diligently to “grow” our editorial board so that we are prepared when we put forth our official call for submissions (see related article in this newsletter). I feel grateful that the AGLBIC Board has supported in my continuing on as the Journal Editor even as I move into another presidential year. I feel confident that with their support, and the support of a solid editorial board, this journal will be a success. I do hope that all of you consider ways to either submit articles for submission, or reach out to colleagues that you know are doing solid research or critical thinking within the field of Counseling and GLBT issues, and encourage them to submit (please see related “call for papers” article).

In terms of this next year, I very much want to use my opportunity to serve this organization for a second time, to focus on “staying the course”. While I laid out some ambitious goals for my first term as president, I now want to work at continuing to make them unfold. Colleen has done a tremendous job at continuing those efforts, and I believe that because we as a Board made a commitment to a five year plan, we shall succeed. I feel good that we have shown some successes in increasing our members of color, and have instituted a successful search for a diversity consultant from within our ranks to work with us to further our goals in this area. In addition, while in Kansas City, we have re-constituted our committees to be more active, and to include more member volunteers. As such, I hope to see continued movement from our Media Committee (under the guidance of Brian Dew), our Membership Committee (under the guidance of Melissa Lidderdale), and our Mentoring Committee (currently transitioning leadership from Joy Whitman to Ed Wierzalis). Last (but certainly not least) I look forward to working with such a wonderful board. So, thank you in advance (is this an attempt to insure pro-active guilt?) to Colleen Connolly (Past-President), Joy Whitman (President-elect), Melissa Lidderdale, Reggie Tucker, Ed Wierzalis (Trustees), Colleen Logan (Governing Council Rep), Susan Seem (CACREP Rep), and our new Diversity Consultant and hard working graduate student extraordinaire, Annaliese Singh. To a wonderful year to come!

In closing, I want to thank you all for supporting the board in having me “recycle” through the leadership again. I will commit once again to providing steady leadership for AGLBIC, and look forward to another exciting year, and to seeing you all in Atlanta in April, 2005 to celebrate our work.. ▼

AGLBIC Past Future Present

Continued: Letter from our Past-President

Kansas City 2004: The ACA Conference was fun and very productive! Thank you, Ned, for your coordination of the AGLBIC events. Some key developments materialized during this 2004 conference.

▼ AGLBIC's First Day of Learning: A full day of learning surrounding GLBT issues in counseling occurred. Ned planted the seed, Mark Pope set it in motion, and I arranged and coordinated the day's learning, which proved to be a big success. Mark, as ACA President, provided additional program slots to AGLBIC, which enabled us to have AGLBIC's full Day of Learning and keep the other ACA-accepted programs running throughout the rest of the conference. I received a lot of great feedback on the concentrated day of learning, and we hope to continue it next year.

▼ Multiculturalism and Diversity: We have been aware of the need for more diverse voices within the division. Anneliese Singh responded to our call for a Multicultural Consultant and presented a solid proposal to the AGLBIC board at Kansas City. I am very excited with Anneliese's enthusiasm and great ideas for expanding the multicultural voice within AGLBIC. She recommended a regular column on issues surrounding diversity (please see her Diversity Watch on page 4). Furthermore, Anneliese already noted the lack of written recognition in the bylaws of AGLBIC's commitment to diversity. We drafted and recommended wording for a bylaw revision and will work toward its incorporation.

▼ Media Committee: In recognition of the expanding needs of AGLBIC, we activated the Media Committee, as set out in our bylaws. Brian Dew is the current and first Media Committee Chair. Brian reports that the committee is active and its members are creating ideas for a media and public relations proposal to be presented to the Board, which will include expanding information on the AGLBIC website.

▼ Membership Needs and Communication: Paying your dues and maintaining your membership allows many things to occur that are not always easily seen. You might end up wondering, "What am I getting for my dues?" At the board meeting we brainstormed ways to best achieve this communication to membership, and then began listing action steps already taken toward each point within the mission statement. We will continue working on this communication in our upcoming meetings. Although it is still a work in progress, I would like to provide just two important but not clearly apparent examples of what your dues support:

▼ Representation at COPARC (Council of Presidents and Regional Chairs): Presidents and President-elects from all divisions and regional chairs convene biannually to have direct contact with each other, with the ACA Presidents, and with the ACA staff. AGLBIC representation helps keep the GLBT "voice" out front and center across the association.

▼ Governing Council Representation: Having a "seat at the ACA table" is critical to AGLBIC's survival and growth. Representatives vote on issues directly affecting the division, such as size requirements and financial considerations, as well as on big picture issues. AGLBIC's current GC representative, Colleen Logan, was present and voted on two very important GLBT-related motions that were passed this spring: (1) a motion to accept and endorse the AGLBIC Competencies, and (2) a motion to adopt a resolution to protect intersex children from unwanted surgery, secrecy, and shame (see Colleen Logan's article on page 6).

Moreover, there are the philosophical gains: You are contributing to a division committed to promoting awareness and understanding of GLBT issues and to improving standards for the profession and community. We recognize the need to better communicate to members what their hard-earned dollars are accomplishing; we also hope to inspire those not involved to become involved, and those who are involved to reenergize and stay involved. Please continue to follow this information in the Newsletter and find ways that you, too, can continue impacting the profession and the broader community.

All of us on the Board returned from the Kansas City meetings and conference full of enthusiasm and ideas to improve and expand AGLBIC. We did not want to lose the momentum we built. In May we initiated the first Online AGLBIC Board of Directors Meeting. (You can find leaders' reports from this meeting on the AGLBIC website.) Ned is currently scheduling the next online meeting to keep continuity and productivity going.

Diversity Watch

By Anneliese Singh

“When I dare to be powerful, to use my strength in the service of my vision, then it becomes less and less important whether I am afraid.”

- Andre Lorde

Greetings! I wanted to introduce myself and this new column (“Diversity Watch”) in the AGLBIC newsletter. I am currently stepping into the position of Multicultural Consultant to the board of AGLBIC. This position was initiated by Ned Farley in 2003 for the purpose of “consult[ing] with the board on strategies to make AGLBIC more inclusive and representative.” The purpose of this column is to track how the board leverages these strategies to build a more inclusive membership for LGBT and LGBT-allies of color.

When I first read about the position in the AGLBIC newsletter, I thought “Wow, this sounds like a great idea!” Especially since my research interests include exploring the intersection of race/ethnicity and LGBTQII identity, the position sounded like a perfect fit for me. Colleen Connelly asked me to attend the annual pre-convention spring board meeting and to draft a proposal for the board. “Great, I thought!” once again. Then, I sat down to write the proposal and faced complete and total writers’ block. “What do I know about these any of these issues?” I thought in a moment of panic.

Then, I gathered my composure, shook off my insecurities, and let myself dream a little about AGLBIC. I started to think about what is already strong about AGLBIC in terms of diversity and about the places that we still want to grow as an organization. My fingers danced across the keyboard more freely as I opened myself up to these ideas. What follows are just a few snippets from that daydream session that I would present at the AGLBIC Spring Board meeting:

- ❖ Expand Mission Statement: Include a statement that AGLBIC is committed to building a membership that reflects the diversity of LGBT-folks and LGBT-allies
- ❖ Let ACA see our growth: Recruit articles on AGLBIC’s efforts to become more diverse for submission to Counseling Today and the AGLBIC Newsletter.

- ❖ Submit article on intersection of LGBTQII issues and race/ethnicity/culture to Counseling Today/AGLBIC Newsletter.
- ❖ Strengthen existing ties with other divisions within ACA to foster education, research, and advocacy with LGBTQII individuals from diverse backgrounds.

Ok, so back to the AGLBIC Spring Board meeting. I presented the proposal to the board and held my breath. The board, with great enthusiasm and commitment, immediately amended the mission statement and was overwhelmingly supportive of the proposal in general, adding lots of new ideas as well. I thought to myself, “Wow! More reasons to dream on an even larger scale from here on out since the board is 100% committed to the goals of this position.”

So, I invite you all, both new and long-standing AGLBIC members, to email me your ideas about ways you would like to see our organization address diversity issues (nanakikaur@yahoo.com). In order to do this job well, I need your voice to share ways that we may commit as an organization to more fully value not only the diversity we already have in our organization, but also to more fully expand our vision of membership we would like to reach. ▼

I'm disappointed that two hoped-for goals did not produce immediate results: forming state chapters and creating a transgender interest network. However, I'm hopeful that the connections made and the work done this year in these two areas will lead to results in the upcoming year(s). I would like to extend special appreciation to the following people:

▼ Ned Farley for accepting an additional presidency when Nick Dicarlo resigned.

▼ Board members (2003-2004) Joy Whitman, Cyndy Boyd, Colleen Logan, Reggie Tucker, Melissa Lidderdale, and Rob Mate for their hard work and support.

▼ Rob Mate for his long-time work as AGLBIC Treasurer. Rob resigned as Treasurer but is working with the new treasurer, Trustee Reggie Tucker, in making the transition and intends to continue his contributions to AGLBIC in many other ways. Thank you, Rob, for your continued dedication to AGLBIC.

▼ Joy Whitman for her longstanding work as Graduate Student/Mentoring Chair. Joy is the current President-elect, and I look forward to working with her this year on the board. Ed Wierzalis, new AGLBIC Trustee, has accepted the Mentoring Chair position.

▼ Bob Rohde for his continued dedication to recording AGLBIC's history as AGLBIC's Historian and Archivist. Without a record of the historical underpinnings of AGLBIC, it would be hard to create a vision for the future. Bob is working with ACA headquarters to create a permanent AGLBIC archive within the American Counseling Association.

▼ Karen Hartman, who amazes me with her hard work, dedication, and perseverance in keeping this Newsletter alive, viable, and always growing. Thank you, Karen and Ed Wierzalis, for your editorial work and in making a product of which AGLBIC can be proud.

Goodbyes come in many forms. On a professional level, I leave with a sense of confidence with our new (and renewed) president, Ned Farley, at the helm and the solid board of directors to support and drive AGLBIC's next year – and beyond!

On a personal note, I cannot end my term without acknowledging my parents, Tina and Will Connolly. They supported me in so many ways and I know I would not be a counselor educator – or ending a term as a national officer in an association for GLBT issues in counseling – without their modeling of leadership and advocacy. They shared love and commitment throughout their 66 years of marriage and showed the importance of relationship. They led the family through many challenging times, and their tenure did not end when children left home. Mother led through warmth and compassion, making others feel invited and safe to change directions and find sturdier paths. Dad led through passion and drive. He helped family, friends, and strangers and effected profound change for his entire 93 years. So I take personal license to extend my thanks, appreciation, and love to both of them and each of them. ▼

In loving memory of

Willard Francis Connolly

April 20th, 1911 – June 11th, 2004

It is never too early to begin thinking about nominations for AGLBIC Awards for the 2004-2005 year, to be awarded at our brunch in Atlanta in April. We are seeking nominations for three awards this year:

Joe Norton Award: This award is given to an individual or organization that has made outstanding contributions to the GLBT community in the host city for the ACA Conference. Atlanta is the host city this year. This award is generally given to someone or some organization not already affiliated with AGLBIC, however on occasion, it has gone to an AGLBIC member who clearly "shines" in her/his work, or an organization affiliated with an AGLBIC member.

Graduate Student Award: This new award is given to a graduate student member of AGLBIC who has contributed significantly in one of three areas: Representing or embodying the mission of AGLBIC through direct service for AGLBIC or the field of counseling; for an outstanding research contribution furthering knowledge of GLBT issues; or to service or research that specifically focuses on furthering the knowledge of and commitment to issues of diversity within the GLBT community.

Nominations for Awards

AGLBIC Service Award: This award is given to an AGLBIC member who has made a significant contribution to AGLBIC for or with the division, or who has represented AGLBIC's mission to the Counseling Profession, ACA, or other affiliated divisions or related organizations.

Please forward any nominations for any or all of these awards to Colleen Connolly, Ph.D., Past-President and Chair of the Awards Committee at cconnolly@txstate.edu. Your nomination should include a clearly articulated rationale of why the person or organization you are nominating are deserving of the proposed award, including biographical information, credentials (if appropriate), and examples of the work that you feel exemplifies their qualifications for the nomination. ▼

Mentoring Update:

Joy S. Whitman, Ph.D.

At this year's ACA National Convention, AGLBIC was successful in attracting many interested members to the mentoring program. We had a large number of people sign up to either obtain a mentor or be a mentor. Regretfully that list was lost. No one has returned it and it is believed that most likely someone mistakenly picked it up when visiting the AGLBIC booth for other materials. We apologize for this mistake and assure our membership that this has not happened before.

If you had signed up to either receive a mentor or to be a mentor, please allow us to offer this opportunity to you again. Feel free to email me at jwhitman@depaul.edu with your interest. Or you can go <http://www.aglbic.org/resources/mentor.htm> and find the forms at the bottom of the site that pertain to your needs. Once you download, save, and fill them out with your information, please email those forms to me at my email address above.

I am also seeking members who would be interested in being a part of the mentoring committee. Though I will be handing over the Mentoring Chair to Ed Wierzalis, I will continue to be involved. If you are interested in being a part of this committee, please let me or Ed know. It is a great opportunity to help graduate students and new professionals. The experience for me has been quite rewarding.

Graduate students man the AGLBIC Booth at the ACA 2004 Convention in Kansas City!

Governing Council Update:

Colleen Logan, Ph.D.

Greetings from our seat at the Governing Council table! I am pleased to report that the meeting in Kansas City at the ACA National convention went well particularly in terms of the warm collegiality and collaboration among the GC members. Our brother, Dr. Mark Pope, ACA president deserves many kudos for his strong leadership, solid organization skills and steady hand at the helm as he guided ACA through both celebratory and challenging waters during this past year.

On the other hand, issues related to membership recruitment and maintenance, divisional status, creative dues structuring and balancing the budget continue to be difficult and complex problems facing each Governing Council. These issues are likely to be revisited at the fall meeting of GC and probably at the next meeting and the next one and so on and so on. I don't mean to sound hopeless or jaded about the process but I'm really starting to believe that it's going to take a revolutionary change to get this organization out of its rut and moving forward toward the future. And, believe me, AGLBIC has been and will continue to be an important factor in the ongoing evolution of ACA.

On a much more positive note, GC unanimously passed the following two motions. And it is in doing so that I was once again reminded of the impact of our presence and our voice within the overall ACA organization.

The motion to accept and endorse the competencies and standards of practice for counseling sexual minority clients and their significant others was passed unanimously and without discussion by Governing Council.

Given the shortage of formal educational and experiential training regarding the myriad issues related to sexual minorities, it is imperative that the competencies and standards of practice are disseminated to counseling professionals. Please note that the competencies are available AGLBIC website. Download them now and spread the good news!

We're Here! We're Queer! Get Used to Us! Self-Defense For Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgendered People challenges the belief that we are weak, powerless victims. News reports of anti-GLBT violence and movies such as The Laramie Project, The Matthew Shepard Story, The Brandon Teena Story, and Boys Don't Cry raise awareness about the issue of antiGLBT violence, but because the focus is often on how we are victimized, they leave many GLBT people feeling disempowered in the face of that hatred and violence.

For example, when asked to visualize herself successfully confronting an anti-GLBT harasser in very safe situation, a student in a self-defense class that I was teaching responded, "I can't even imagine successfully defending myself. All you read about in the paper are things like 'lesbian couple murdered and raped' or 'gay man beaten with baseball bat in park.'" When she spoke these words, the rest of the class nodded their heads in agreement.

We're Here! We're Queer! Get Used to Us! Self-Defense For Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgendered People is an antidote to this sense of hopelessness.

Numerous anecdotes from GLBT people describe how they have defended themselves against homophobic comments, threatening situations, and violence. These anecdotes show that not only is it possible to defend ourselves, but that people are actually doing it and living to tell about it. Sewell weaves self-defense theory and accessible techniques around the anecdotes to teach readers how they can defend themselves as well. And since intimate abuse is as rampant in queer relationships as it is in straight relationships, she has included a chapter describing same-sex domestic violence that offers strategies on how to get out of abusive relationships. Like the other chapters, this chapter weaves user-friendly information around anecdotal examples. Each chapter ends with a set of exercises to practice the skills that the reader has learned.

Editors Note: Regina Sewell is a licensed professional counselor, AGLBIC member and self-defense instructor. She has a Ph.D. in Sociology with a focus on hate-crimes and violence against women. This book is available at <http://www.booksurge.com> (which has the best price at $15.99 for print, and $7.99 for Ebook/non-printable) and also can be found on Amazon.com.

Focus on MY Family: A Queerspawn Anthology”

The members of the COLAGE Youth Leadership and Action Program proudly announce “Focus on MY Family,” a brand new literary collection of writing, art and poetry by youth with lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender parents.

Focus on MY Family provides a powerful, beautiful, and unique look into the lives of young people with LGBT parents and families--their challenges, hopes, triumphs and daily lives, says Beth Teper, COLAGE Executive Director.

Individual copies and bulk orders are available for a small donation. COLAGE is also developing an action guide of discussion topics, activities and curriculum ideas to accompany the collection. The guide should be available by Fall 2004.

Editors Note: This poster is a result of COLAGE’s new Youth Leadership and Action Program. In the first year (2002-2003), they decided to promote visibility of glbt families in an attempt to provide positive images, challenge homophobia and prejudice. For more information regarding this program please go to the following website <http://www.colage.org/ylap/>

From the poster link, you are able to download free .pdf files of this poster and place orders for hard copies, and download their Respect All Families Action Guide (pdf) document.

Respect ALL Families

"My moms taught me that you never combat hate with hate. Instead educate, love and lead by example. The differences my family and I make are by just being who we are-- a family filled with love, respect, and commitment"
Marina, age 15

"I have met challenges not only because I have two moms, but also because I have an interracial family. Both of these facts have played a big role on how my brother and I grew up. My parents taught us to stick to what we believe in, have an open mind, and be true to ourselves. They told us to have our own opinions, and that we don't have to follow the crowd or hide who we are. My attitude is that I would rather be loved for who I am than liked for who I am not."
Kate, age 18

"The funniest question people ask me when they hear I have gay dads and a lesbian mom is, 'Do they ever try to make you gay?' I answer, of course not-- they want me to be whoever I am."
Quinn, age 18

WANTED:

Editorial Board Members

The Association of Gay, Lesbian, and Bisexual Issues in Counseling (AGLBIC), a division of the American Counseling Association (ACA) is accepting applications for editorial board members for its new journal titled The Journal of GLBT Issues in Counseling. This referred journal focuses on publishing articles that address the important issues relevant to Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, and Transgendered peoples and their significant others. Areas for submission include: (1) new research in the field of counseling, (2) a review of the literature that critically integrates previous work around a specific topic, (3) introduction of new techniques or innovation in service delivery within the counseling field, or (4) theoretical or conceptual pieces that reflect new ideas or new ways of integrating previously held ideas.

We are looking for those who have a background/experience with this population and counseling related issues that involve our work. This includes those who work in the following arenas: counselors, counselor educators, and other counseling related professionals that work across a diversity of fields, including school counseling, mental health, couple and family, colleges and universities, and the public and private sector. Preferably, these individuals will also have a history of publication of scholarly works, or expertise in specific counseling areas that will be of benefit to the reviewing of journal submissions.

In particular, we would like to have an editorial board representative from the major counseling areas represented in ACA. Therefore, in addition to the areas mentioned above, specialization in areas such as assessment, adult development and aging, humanistic orientations, multicultural issues, rehabilitation, spirituality, group work, addictions and offender treatment, and career and employment are also encouraged.

To apply, please send a cover letter outlining your interest and reasons for applying, as well as a current Vita, to: Ned Farley, Ph.D., editor, nfarley@antiochsea.edu. You may also mail an application to the following address: Ned Farley, Ph.D. Chair, Mental Health Counseling Program Center for Programs in Psychology Antioch University Seattle 2326 Sixth Avenue Seattle, WA 98121-1814

AWARD-WINNING CAMPAIGN REVEALS INEQUALITIES FACED EVERY DAY BY GAYS AND LESBIANS: Mini-Documentaries of Real People Risking Their Jobs By Disclosing Their Sexual Orientation

DENVER, July 29, 2004 – While the debate surrounding marriage for same-sex couples has made discrimination a leading news story in 2004, it's just one of many inequalities that gays and lesbians face in everyday life. Such is the message of TurnOut, the Gill Foundation's new public education campaign to help Americans form educated opinions, use that knowledge when they turn out to vote, and commit to equal rights for all. The campaign features award-winning advertising, a Web site and grassroots efforts to demonstrate the importance of fairness and equality. The advertising includes four documentary style television ads that feature real people coming out at work for the first time in a few of the 36* states in the U.S. where it is legal to fire someone on the basis of sexual orientation, plus three thought-provoking print ads.

The campaign Web site, www.TurnOut.org, features astounding facts on the lack of everyday basic rights, two more documentary spots and personal stories. The campaign also features online marketing and a TurnOut Voter Mobilization Toolkit that will be sent to more than 250 organizations around the country to help them educate their communities about these issues and get out the vote among their constituencies. These 250+ organizations have the potential to reach more than 4 million people with a get-out-the-vote effort featuring the reality of discrimination in the workplace and other rights and responsibilities denied to lesbian and gay individuals. The campaign focuses on the following alarming statistics: Only 14* states prohibit employment discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation; 36* states do not.

The acceptance and endorsement of these competencies will help Counselor Educators train proficient providers in the effective delivery of affirmative developmental guidance and mental health services to sexual minority clients and their significant others. Rest assured, AGLBIC leadership will be working closely with CACREP to incorporate the competencies into CACREP standards as well as disseminating the information to Counselor Education programs everywhere.

The second motion that was passed unanimously was the motion to protect intersex children from unwanted surgery, secrecy and shame... Passing this motion means that ACA supports the rights of children too young to consent to be protected from unnecessary medical displays and procedures; the rights of people old enough to make an informed choice to elect or refuse medical procedures; the rights of intersex advocacy groups in their struggle to end secrecy, shame and unwanted genital surgeries and that ACA urges the medical community to work collaboratively with patient advocacy groups to establish and adopt a patient-centered treatment protocol.

I'm looking forward to the fall meeting with high hopes that we will be able to address and resolve some of the issues I named at the beginning of the column in a pragmatic and effective manner.

In pride,

Colleen

Same-sex couples are denied more than 1000 federal benefits that come with marriage, and in 47 out of 50 states they are denied most of the state rights and responsibilities that come with marriage. Partners in a committed same-sex relationship do not have the right to make decisions on a partner's behalf in a medical emergency and can be denied the right to visit a sick or injured loved one in the hospital. Children of same-sex parents are denied Social Security survivor benefits if the deceased parent was not the biological parent or was unable to obtain a second-parent adoption.

Editors note: Please take a moment to visit this site. The documentary ads are very honest and real. The experience of viewing them was a very emotional experience for me. One of the documentaries is of a woman named Kimya who is a social worker who was fired because she was a lesbian.

AGLBIC Journal: Call for Articles

Ned Farley, Ph.D.

The Journal of GLBT Issues in Counseling, is the Journal of the Association of Gay, Lesbian & Bisexual Issues in Counseling, and is published by The Haworth Press. The journal publishes articles that specifically focus on issues and concerns related to the health and well being of sexual minority individuals, families, and communities. The intent is to offer a variety of ideas and perspectives for counselors and related professionals who work with Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, and Transgendered persons and their families and communities. As such, submitted articles should focus in one of the following areas:

Research Studies: Articles within this focus represent qualitative and/or quantitative studies that contribute new understanding to the field of counseling as it relates to sexual minorities. These manuscripts should include an introduction, review of the literature, methodology, data analyses, results, and discussion. Implicit in these is clear descriptions of the studies purpose and implications for future research.

New/Innovative Practices: Articles within this focus represent ways of approaching counseling, counselor education, training, supervision, or program design that reflect new ideas or innovative approaches that are grounded in counseling theory and/or research.

Conceptual Articles: Submissions in this focus represent original thinking related to the theory and practice of counseling. These might include a review of the literature, which critiques and integrates previously stated ideas; a presentation of new theoretical perspectives, or perhaps addressing a new way of utilizing previously published work.

All submissions should be prepared according to the guidelines of the most recent Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, including the use of citations and references, and inclusion of non-discriminatory language. Manuscripts should be sent as attachments via the e-mail address below, or on disc. All work should be done in Microsoft Word. Tables and figures should be used only when essential, and illustrations or graphs should be embedded in your manuscript at their appropriate place. If accepted for publication, final manuscripts should be publication ready when submitted. It is the author's responsibilities to secure permission to use any copyrighted materials within their manuscript.

The Journal of GLBT Issues in Counseling expects authors to follow the most current ACA Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice.

The Journal of GLBT Issues in Counseling understands that authors bear full responsibility for the accuracy of all referenced, quotations, tables, figures, and the overall content of their article.

Please submit articles to Ned Farley, Ph.D., Editor, The Journal of GLBT Issues in Counseling at nfarley@aus.edu. Confirmation will be sent via e-mail.

The 2004 Joe Norton Award went to Keith Spare (on the right).

Colleen Connolly presents Keith Spare with the Joe Norton Award at the AGLBIC Brunch in Kansas City Spring 2004 ACA Conference.

The 2004 AGLBIC Service Award went to Kathleen Ritter (who was unable to attend the ACA Conference this year).

Both award recipients this year are members of AGLBIC!

Sexual Minorities in Historical Context

Harrington Park Press® (HPP)

Vern L. Bullough, RN, PhD

3304 West Sierra Drive, Westlake Village, CA 91362

Phone: (805) 449-8775; E-mail: VBULLOUGH@CSUN.EDU

The planned series will include books on the history of all non conforming sexual behavior not only in western culture but in all others as well.

Gay and Lesbian Studies

Harrington Park Press® (HPP)

John P. De Cecco, PhD

San Francisco State University, Psychology Building Room 502

San Francisco, CA 94132

Phone: (415) 338-1137; E-mail: aquinas@sfsu.edu

Although the books deal especially with the social sciences, history, humanities, and the arts, this book program includes all disciplinary and interdisciplinary fields that have contributed to gay and lesbian studies over the past decade.

Southern Tier Editions

Harrington Park Press® (HPP)

Executive Editor: Jay Quinn

The Haworth Press, Inc.

10 Alice Street, Binghamton, NY 13904-1580

E-mail: jayquinn@bellsouth.net

Associate Editor: Greg Herren

Southern Tier Editions is committed to presenting a vision of the richness and diversity of gay men's lives, both in fiction and in popular, accessible non-fiction. The imprint strives to present cutting edge works by some of today's most talented gay writers, reportage from the frontiers of contemporary queer culture with accounts of life, love, sex, and desire in the real world.

Gay Male Relationships

Harrington Park Press® (HPP)

Neil Kaminsky, LCSW

8300 De Longpre Avenue, Apt. 206, West Hollywood, CA 90069

Phone: (323) 650-3542; E-mail: nkaminsky@msn.com

As the gay male community continues to develop both internally and in relation to acceptance and visibility within mainstream America, there is a significant quest for information about these kind of relationships. Indeed, this is a new frontier with room for many kinds of works.

Bisexuality

Harrington Park Press® (HPP)

Fritz Klein, MD

4545 Park Blvd., #206, San Diego, CA 92116-2667

Phone: (619) 542-0088; E-mail: fritzklein@cox.net

Bisexuality is a sexual orientation which has been until recently not been written about and research has been minimal. Many people misunderstand the concept so that any book which describes it, publishes original research or tells a story about people who are bisexual is welcomed.

GLBT Community & Youth Studies

Harrington Park Press® (HPP)

James T. Sears, PhD

P.O. Box 1068, Johns Island, SC 29457

Phone: (843) 224-4393; E-mail: jglic@jtsears.com OR author@jtsears.com

This multidisciplinary book series explores lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender communities. From the corner bar and ball field to neighborhoods and cultural regions, queer people have created space within a heteronormative world.

The Haworth Portraits Series

Editor: Jay Quinn

The Haworth Press, Inc.

10 Alice Street, Binghamton, NY 13904-1580

E-mail: jayquinn@bellsouth.net

The Haworth Portraits Series book program is dedicated exclusively to autobiography, memoir, and biographies of all people who have dealt with life-altering mental illness and neurological disorders. Personal accounts of living with Alzheimer's, agoraphobia, autism, Asperger Syndrome, schizophrenia, bi-polar and obsessive-compulsive disorders, and ADD/AHD are but some of the many subjects the book program hopes to present.

The Haworth Positronic Press

Greg Herren

Use this journal to stay updated on LGBT public policy . . .
one of the most hotly contested territories in politics!

The Journal of Gay & Lesbian Politics is the first journal dedicated to all aspects of sexual minority politics. This exclusive resource focuses on US and international politics and policymaking relating to the status of gays, lesbians, bisexuals, and transgendered persons in society. The journal offers you the expertise of political activists and academics whose experiences and insights provide a forum where public policy on the LGBT movement is analyzed through scholarly research rather than media hype.

The journal publishes submissions from all subfields of political science, including comparative and international studies, political theory, public policy, and American national, state, and local politics. The gay and lesbian rights movement is arguably the most vibrant social and political movement in the contemporary United States, and the Journal of Gay & Lesbian Politics is the singular means for keeping up-to-date with the latest legal changes and revisions in LGBT policies. Scholars, political scientists, and LGBT activists will find this journal fills a giant void in the literature of political science.

The Journal of Gay and Lesbian Politics investigates important sexual minority issues, such as:

- analysis of legislative, executive, or judicial decision making as it affects the LGBT community
- the interaction of religion and sexuality
- community-building and interest group politics
- party and electoral politics
- equality and discrimination within the LGBT communities
- and more!

• The Journal of GLBT Family Studies is a much-needed resource on the working dynamics of the diverse family structures found in every corner of the world. This groundbreaking new journal addresses the vital issues facing gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender individuals and their families. Edited by Dr. Jerry J. Bigner, who has provided expert witness testimony in legal cases and in the litigation involving same-sex marriages in Canada, the journal features interdisciplinary studies and scholarly essays on topics related to GLBT family life and functioning as well as relationships with other families.

• The Journal of GLBT Family Studies is the first journal to address family issues and concerns important to GLBT individuals and their families of origin, as well as families formed in adulthood. This unique peer-reviewed journal examines parent-child relationships, child development, sibling relationships, family structure, intimate relationships, stepfamilies, alternative family structures, and extended family relationships. The journal's contributors present research findings on topics that range from family pattern issues relating to roles, rules, boundaries, and communication styles, to high risk issues, such as AIDS, physical, sexual, and emotional abuse, addiction, disclosure, homophobia, and heterosexism.

• The Journal of GLBT Family Studies also examines:

- gender roles
- adoption issues
- work issues
- couple and relationship issues
- same-sex marriage
- sexual identity
- and much more!

• The Journal of GLBT Family Studies is the only scholarly forum to promote the study of gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender individuals and their families. Academics, researchers, and practitioners working in marriage and family therapy, lifespan development, counseling, social work, psychiatry, psychology, and human services will find this journal essential as an everyday resource.

The Haworth Press, Inc., is pleased to become the new publisher of the International Journal of Transgenderism. We feel that this electronic journal will be an important vehicle for the transmission of scholarly work in the field. The journal publishes peer-reviewed, original articles on a quarterly basis. In addition, we republish important and seminal articles in our Archives section. Timely information regarding transgenderism will be available quickly and easily. We are excited about the ability to offer this journal electronically. We hope that this format will be a better way to disseminate knowledge and to improve communication among scholars interested in the topic of transgenderism.

The editorial board includes a broad representation of international scholars from a wide variety of disciplines. Many of the editorial board members have been longstanding members in the Harry Benjamin International Gender Dysphoria Association. The journal, like this organization, is committed to the advancement of knowledge in the areas of:

- gender dysphoria
- improvement in the medical and psychological treatment of transgender individuals
- social and legal acceptance of hormonal and surgical sex reassignment
- professional and public education on the phenomenon of transgenderism

From the editors:

"We are at an exciting point in history where the study of transgenderism is rapidly expanding both in quantity and in breadth. We are learning more about transgenderism from an interdisciplinary and intercultural perspective, from vast new knowledge from psychological and biomedical studies of gender identity, and from anthropological, sociocultural, and historical studies."

Journal of Bisexuality™

Editor: Fritz Klein, MD

EDITORIAL ADDRESS: 4545 Park Blvd. #206, San Diego, CA 92116; Tel: (619) 542-0088; Fax: (619) 542-0006; E-mail: FritzKlein@cox.net

"FILLS A GAP and does so worthily. . . A FEAST OF INFORMATION and debate for those new to the world of bisexuality."

—Lesbian & Gay Psychology Review

"This journal will help academics and interested readers explore a population not represented well elsewhere. Recommended for academic libraries."

—Magazines for Libraries

The Journal of Bisexuality is the first professional quarterly to publish both professional articles and serious essays on bisexuality and its meaning for the individual, the community, and society. This intelligent journal is intended for more than the academic audience. While researchers will be published after a peer-review process, other sections of the journal cover bisexual topics in a more popular and nonacademic style. With its wide audience scope and the range of issues discussed, this journal is ideal for both academic and public libraries who want to offer their patrons the latest information on the topic of bisexuality.

Journal of Lesbian Studies™

Editor: Esther D. Rothblum, PhD

EDITORIAL ADDRESS: 3333 California Street, Suite 340, San Francisco, CA 94118; Tel: (415) 407-9013 (mobile phone and voicemail); Fax: (415) 502-5208; E-mail: esther.rothblum@uvm.edu

"Devoted to descriptive, theoretical, empirical, applied, and multicultural perspectives on the topic of lesbian studies."

—Feminist Bookstore News

"RECOMMENDED for academic collections."

"... A vehicle for the promotion of scholarship and commentary on lesbianism from and international and multicultural perspective."

—Magazines for Libraries

When lesbian issues and interests overlap with queer issues, the unique needs, concerns, and interests of lesbians can get lost in the shuffle. The Journal of Lesbian Studies helps sort through the confusion, fostering new lesbian scholarship without cutting ties to grassroots activism. The journal gives the lesbian experience an international and multicultural voice, presenting book reviews, poetry, letters to the editor, debates, and commentaries.

"HIGH STANDARD OF SCHOLARSHIP ... Accessible but serious ... well worth the specialist's attention."

—Lesbian & Gay Psychology Review

"Research and theory with a human face, that's what makes this journal AN UNEQUALED LEADER AMONG SEXUALITY JOURNALS."

—Robert T. Francoeur, PhD, Professor of Human Sexuality and Embryology, Fairleigh Dickinson University

Here is a scholarly professional journal that publishes original articles about human sexuality. Articles include reports of theoretical thinking, research findings, and/or clinical or educational methodology that cover the entire scope of the discipline of psychology. The Journal of Psychology & Human Sexuality fills an existing gap in the psychological literature by focusing specifically on issues in the field of sexual science.

Bringing you the latest works from the biggest names in gay fiction!

Harrington Gay Men's Fiction Quarterly™

Editor: Thomas L. Long, PhD

EDITORIAL ADDRESS: Thomas Nelson Community College, 99 Thomas Nelson Drive, Hampton, VA 23666;
Tel: (757) 825-3663; Fax: (757) 825-3842; E-mail: longt@tmcc.vccs.edu

Harrington Gay Men's Fiction Quarterly is devoted to the latest names and innovations in gay men's fiction and serves as a forum for discovering new talents. You'll get exclusive "sneak peeks" of the latest works in progress from such prominent writers as Andrew Holleran, Scott Heim, and Bernard Cooper, and new critical examinations of 'lost' gay novels.

Special thematic issues of Harrington Gay Men's Fiction Quarterly focus on fiction concerning AIDS, coming out, relationships, sexuality, religion, and family. This quarterly journal is a leader in the growing genre of gay fiction and, in addition to scholarly studies and library collections, is intended for a general gay readership interested in the latest and best writing—American and international—on this subject. Each issue of the Quarterly:

- begins with a two or three page editor's foreword that brings the work of the issue together
- contains five or six stories of a wide range of forms, lengths, and subject matter
- offers a personal essay on some aspect of gay men's fiction by a prominent essayist
- features a remarkable artist or photographer
- critically examines a difficult-to-find novel by a gay author

Harrington Gay Men's Fiction Quarterly highlights racial, cultural, and geographical diversity; rediscovers lost voices; and explores the avant garde possibilities of formal innovation, erotica, creative nonfiction, and memoir. This journal will help you—whether a gay fiction fan or writer—take the genre more seriously as a respectable and important addition to the available literature.

Outstanding Reviews!

"Libraries supporting writing programs or voracious readers need to consider HGMFQ."
—Magazines for Libraries

"I welcome subsequent editions of Harrington Gay Men's Fiction Quarterly and applaud Harrington Park Press for publishing bright new authors as well as established writers. YOU ARE SURE TO FIND SEVERAL STORIES YOU'LL BE THANKFUL FOR."

—Michael's Thing

"The art, essays, and short stories can take you places you never imagined."

—Patrick D. Hoctel, MFA, Reviewer, Bay Area Reporter

"These are stories in which people are merely people and not freighted tokens of our liberation. . . . The journal doesn't set out to please anybody in particular; and so, may please a good number of people in general who want GOOD, CHALLENGING READING."

Outstanding Reviews!

"MOST IMPRESSIVE. . . High-powered lesbian writers. The first two editions have included short fiction from Sarah Schulman, Donna Allegra, and Nicola Griffith, as well as poetry by Terry Wolverton, Gerry Gomez Pearlberg, and Elena Georgiou."

—Lambda Book Report

"With stellar authors, this could become THE BEST PLACE TO FIND GREAT READING AND WONDERFUL NEW WRITERS. Strongly recommended for libraries supporting writing programs and literature collections."

—Magazines for Libraries

"WOW! . . . SOME OF THE MOST UNIQUE FICTION I HAVE EVER READ. The whole gamut of human experience is expressed vividly in this one small volume . . . love, rejection, desire, fear, brutality, concerns over aging, sexual obsession, revenge, and plain, old fashioned humor."

—Francine M. Storey, Poet and Playwright, winner of the Dylan Thomas Award for Instructions for Search

Anything but Straight

Unmasking the Scandals and Lies Behind the Ex-Gay Myth

Over 300 Pages!

New Book!

Wayne R. Besen

Former Spokesperson, the Human Rights Campaign®, the largest GLBT advocacy group in Washington, DC

Outstanding Reviews!

"AN ESSENTIAL READ for anybody considering participating in such programs, for mental health professionals, and for parents who think that their gay children can become heterosexuals."

—ForeWord (national review of specialty and university press books)

"A POWERFUL, RIVETING, AND WELL-WRITTEN look at the 'ex-gay' ministries."

—David Mixner, Author of Stranger Among Friends,
Co-Editor of Brave Journeys: Profiles in Gay and Lesbian Courage

"PROVOCATIVE AND WELL-DOCUMENTED."

... Offers hope to those misled by people who cannot accept gays for who they are."

—Stonewall News Northwest

"A GROUNDBREAKING BOOK ... INCREDIBLY INFORMATIVE yet wildly entertaining."

—William Waybourn, President, Window Media (publisher of the Washington Blade, the New York Blade and Southern Voice)

About the Book

Nationally recognized activist Wayne Besen spent four years examining the phenomenon of "ex-gay" ministries and reparative therapies—interviewing leaders, attending conferences, and visiting ministries undercover as he accumulated hundreds of hours of research. The result is Anything but Straight: Unmasking the Scandals and Lies Behind the Ex-Gay Myth, a groundbreaking exposé of the controversial movement that's revered by independent religious groups and reviled by gay and lesbian organizations. The book presents a historical perspective on the dispute, examining "ex-gay" groups such as Love In Action, Exodus International, Homosexuals Anonymous, and profiling a cast of characters that includes Pat Robertson, Rev. Jerry Falwell, "ex-gay" poster boy John Paulk, National Association of Research and Therapy of Homosexuality activist Richard Cohen, and psychiatrist Dr. Robert Spitzer.

Queer Theory and Communication

From Disciplining Queers to Queering the Discipline(s)

Edited by Gust A. Yep, PhD

Professor, Department of Speech and Communication Studies and Human Sexuality Studies Program, San Francisco State University, San Francisco, California

Karen E. Lovaas, PhD

Assistant Professor, Department of Speech and Communication Studies, San Francisco State University, San Francisco, California

John P. Elia, PhD

Assistant Professor, Department of Health Education, San Francisco State University, San Francisco, California

"A MAJOR WORK OF IMPORTANCE for racially and sexually diverse constituencies united in their commitment to social justice and human rights."

—Peter McLaren, PhD, FRSA, Professor, Graduate School of Education and Information Studies, University of California, Los Angeles

Queer Theory and Communication: From Disciplining Queers to Queering the Discipline(s) is a conversation starter, sparking smart talk about sexuality in the communications discipline and beyond. Edited by members of "The San Francisco Radical Trio," the book integrates current queer theory, research, and interventions to create a critical lens with which to view the damaging effects of heteronormativity on personal, social, and cultural levels, and to see the possibilities for change through social and cultural transformation.

The Drag Queen Anthology

The Absolutely Fabulous but Flawlessly Customary World of Female Impersonators

Edited by Steven P. Schacht, PhD

Department of Sociology, Plattsburgh State University of New York

with Lisa Underwood

Department of Sociology, Plattsburgh State University of New York

“TRULY CUTTING-EDGE. . . A MUST-READ FOR SCHOLARS AND STUDENTS of the social construction of gender and gendered deviance. A long-overdue book that should stand as a centerpiece in the study and discussion of what it means to construct, perform, and experience gender.”

—Richard Tewksbury, PhD, Professor of Justice Administration, University of Louisville

The Drag Queen Anthology: The Absolutely Fabulous but Flawlessly Customary World of Female Impersonators examines the phenomena of male-to-female gender performance and the people who live it. This provocative collection of original essays explores the possibilities, limitations, ironies, and controversies surrounding men who perform as women to an audience that knows the truth but celebrates the illusion.

The Drag King Anthology

Edited by Donna Troka, PhD (cand.)

The Graduate Institute of the Liberal Arts, Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia

Kathleen LeBesco, PhD

Assistant Professor, Communication Arts, Marymount Manhattan College, New York City

Jean Noble, PhD

Assistant Professor, Department of English, York University, Toronto, Ontario, Canada

“Presents a wonderfully diverse range of new perspectives on drag king culture, drawing together the insights of participants and fans, academic work by scholars from several disciplines, and photographic images of drag performance.”

—Laura Doan, Author of Fashioning Sapphism: The Origins of a Modern English Lesbian Culture; Director, Women's Studies Centre, University of Manchester, United Kingdom

The Drag King Anthology examines the “other side” of the drag culture—female-to-male performers who embody masculinity as a statement of queer identity. This unique book dispels the myth that drag kings are simply “women doing drag,” presenting entertaining and enlightening essays that address gender, sexuality, and feminism. Using prose, poetry, and photographs, an eclectic mix of scholars, performers, and fans offer cultural and political insights on the international growth and development of drag king troupes and communities.

Explore the impact of AIDS on the gay bathhouse culture!

Gay Bathhouses and Public Health Policy

Edited by William J. Woods, PhD

Assistant Adjunct Professor, Center for AIDS Prevention Studies, Department of Medicine, University of California, San Francisco

Diane Binson, PhD

Assistant Adjunct Professor, Center for AIDS Prevention Studies, Department of Medicine, University of California, San Francisco

• "IMPORTANT. . . A UNIQUE AND VALUABLE CONTRIBUTION to the social science and public health literature."

• —Richard Tewksbury, PhD, Professor of Justice Administration, University of Louisville

• Public health policy on bathhouses has been limited and poorly documented. This book—the first to be published on this timely and important topic—will help you become knowledgeable about gay bathhouses. Unlike most other places where men have sex in public, gay bathhouses are subject to government-imposed health regulations. Gay Bathhouses and Public Health Policy examines the bathhouse environment and how it differs from other public sex environments. It describes public policies that have been implemented, discussing policies for HIV prevention, testing, and intervention; issues related to civil liberties; and the legal aspects of these policies.

Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, and Transgender People with Developmental Disabilities and Mental Retardation

Stories of the Rainbow Support Group

John D. Allen, MS

Program Director, Employment Services, Marrakech, Inc., Woodbridge, Connecticut

• "A VITAL AND COMPELLING STORY of activism and grassroots organizing that CAN LITERALLY CHANGE LIVES."

• —Michael Bronski, Author of Culture Clash: The Making of Gay Sensibility and The Pleasure Principle: Sex Backlash and the Struggle for Gay Freedom

• Reflecting an unprecedented development in the disabled and sexual minority communities, this book describes the founding, achievements, and history of a unique group providing support for GLBT people with developmental disabilities or mental retardation. In this pathbreaking book, group founder John D. Allen describes the Rainbow Support Group's beginnings in 1998 at the New Haven Gay & Lesbian Community Center in Connecticut and the ways in which it has been shattering the myths and stereotypes surrounding people with mental retardation ever since.

Learn more about gays, lesbians, bisexuals, and transgendered people—and the challenges they face every day in American society!

Sexual Minorities

Discrimination, Challenges and Development in America

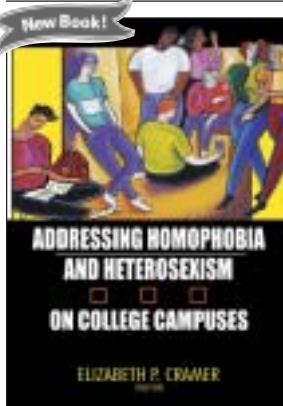

Edited by

Michael K. Sullivan, PhD

Assistant Professor, University of Tennessee, Memphis

• Sexual Minorities: Discriminations, Challenges, and Developments in America examines various stumbling blocks that prevent many gays, lesbians, bisexuals, and transgendered people from living unrestricted, healthy lives. This book concentrates on the affects of outside influences on the homosexual psyche from adolescence to mid-life and programs and services that need to be developed to improve quality of life. Sexual minority groups face negativity from society in the forms of homophobia and heterosexism, which can internalize to form self-loathing and depression. This book is a wake-up call for all members of society regardless of age, sex, race, or sexual orientation.

Create a welcoming atmosphere for LGBT people on college campuses!

Addressing Homophobia and Heterosexism on College Campuses

Edited by Elizabeth P. Cramer, PhD, MSW, LCSW, ACSW

Associate Professor, School of Social Work, Virginia Commonwealth University

• "A RESOURCE THAT WILL HAVE WIDE APPEAL to university faculty, staff, and students of all sexual orientations who are involved with addressing LGBTQ issues on campus."

• —James M. Croteau, PhD, Professor of Counselor Education and Counseling Psychology, Western Michigan University

• This book presents an integrated approach toward changing attitudes about lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgendered (LGBT) students, faculty, and staff on contemporary college campuses. From Addressing Homophobia and Heterosexism on College Campuses you can learn specific techniques for handling homophobia and heterosexism in the classroom. The book tackles a wide variety of subjects including religion, academic freedom, diversity training, and nontraditional families, each of which plays a part in the sense of community found on any college campus.

Learn to fight sexual oppression through community activism!

Community Organizing Against Homophobia and Heterosexism

The World Through Rainbow-Colored Glasses

Edited by Samantha Wehbi, PhD

Assistant Professor, School of Social Work, McGill University, Montreal, Quebec, Canada

“ADDRESSES A SIGNIFICANT GAP IN THE LITERATURE on issue-based community organizing. The case studies illustrate the power and control concerns resultant from colonialism, fundamentalism, and fear of diversity.”

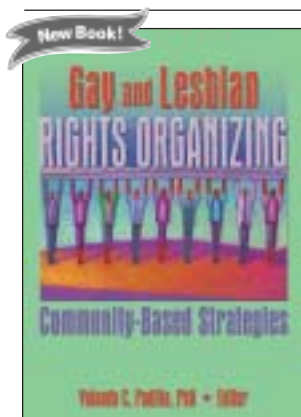

—Caryl Abrahams, PhD, Visiting Professor of Community Development, Prairie View A&M University, Texas

Community Organizing Against Homophobia and Heterosexism: The World Through Rainbow-Colored Glasses presents insights from activists in dramatically diverse cultures working toward a common goal—the eradication of sexual oppression. Contributors share their experiences in organizing for sexual emancipation in many parts of the world, documenting progress in transforming oppressive sexual attitudes, policies, and practices, while acknowledging the long road to sexual democracy that remains to be traveled.

Use these tested strategies to affect social change in YOUR community!

Gay and Lesbian Rights Organizing: Community-Based Strategies

Community-Based Strategies

Edited by Yolanda C. Padilla, PhD, LMSW-AP

Associate Professor, School of Social Work, University of Texas at Austin

“This much-needed book provides A BROAD ARRAY OF STRATEGIES FOR ADVOCACY AND SOCIAL JUSTICE ORGANIZING IN GLBT COMMUNITIES.”

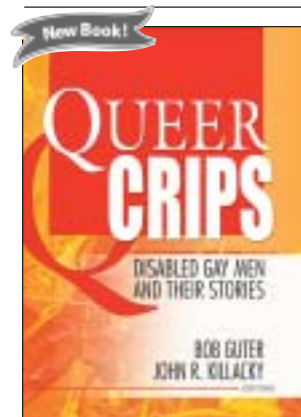

—Deana F. Morrow, PhD, LPC, LCSW, ACSW, Associate Professor and BSW Program Director, The University of North Carolina at Charlotte

This book, the first of its kind, presents a set of case studies of local level organizing for GLBT rights. It illustrates real-life cases of activist strategies that have worked in local communities across the country and, in some cases, have been utilized internationally. Gay and Lesbian Rights Organizing: Community-Based Strategies is a unique resource tool for social workers, community leaders, and others interested in organizing for GLBT rights and services.

Queer Crips

Disabled Gay Men and Their Stories

Edited by Bob Guter

Editor, BENT: A Journal of Cripgay Voices, San Francisco, California

John R. Killackey

Program Officer for Arts and Culture, The San Francisco Foundation

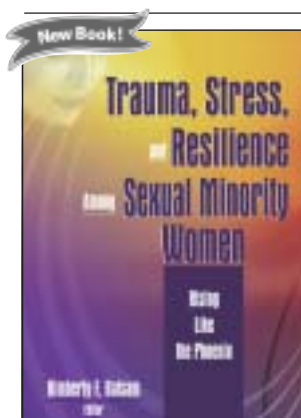

“PROVIDES AN INSIDER’S VIEW into the world of disabled gay men from the unique vantage point of the men themselves.”

—Jim Van Buskirk, Program Manager, James C. Hormel Gay & Lesbian Center, San Francisco Public Library

Queer Crips: Disabled Gay Men and Their Stories reverberates with the sound of “cripgay” voices rising to be heard above the din of indifference and bias, oppression and ignorance. This unique collection of compelling first-person narratives is at once assertive, bold, and groundbreaking, filled with characters—and character. Through the intimacy of one-on-one storytelling, gay men with mobility and neuromuscular disorders, spinal cord injury, deafness, blindness, and AIDS, fight isolation from society—and each other—to establish a public identity and a common culture.

Cutting-edge research on trauma and resilience in the lives of lesbian and bisexual women!

Trauma, Stress, and Resilience Among Sexual Minority Women

Rising Like the Phoenix

Edited by Kimberly F. Balsam, PhD

University of Washington, Seattle

Trauma, Stress, and Resilience Among Sexual Minority Women: Rising Like the Phoenix examines trauma, violence, and stress as experienced by lesbian and bisexual women, as well as individual and community responses that promote resilience and healing. You’ll gain a better understanding of the stressors that these women experience, including the cultural/social trauma of living with homophobia and heterosexism as well as the individual traumas of verbal, physical, and sexual abuse. This book is insightful reading for mental health, health, and social service professionals working with lesbian and bisexual clients or patients, in addition to activists and individuals who work for organizations serving the gay/lesbian/bisexual/transgender community.

Beyond recovery—queer survivors of childhood abuse deliver stories that sear and soar.

Dangerous Families

Queer Writing on Surviving

Mattilda, aka

Matt Bernstein Sycamore

Writer, Editor, and Activist, San Francisco, California

ALSO BY SYCAMORE:

Tricks and Treats: Sex Workers Write About Their Clients (See page 25)

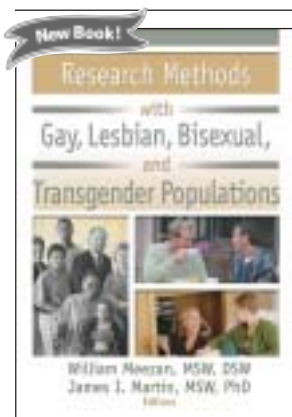

“A GRITTY, PROVOCATIVE ANTHOLOGY that breaks all the rules about political correctness, gender, and sex. With this diverse and graphic collection of stories, the editor has brought us into the next generation of incest literature.”

—Laura Davis, Co-Author of The Courage to Heal; Author of I Thought We'd Never Speak Again

Dangerous Families: Queer Writing on Surviving goes beyond the recovery narrative to create a new queer literature of investigation, exploration, and transformation. Twenty-six stories illuminate the reality of growing up in fear, struggling to rebuild lives damaged by sexual, physical, and/or emotional abuse. The book explores how abuse turns queer survivors into healers, heartbreakers, and homicidal maniacs, presenting brilliant stories that sear and soar.

Icelandic Lives

The Queer Experience

Edited by Voon Chin Phua

New York, New York

“Fascinating.” (Title of the Month)

—Q Syndicate Book Marks and BTWOF

“REMARKABLE . . . VIVID. . . An important addition to the growing literature on Scandinavian homosexuality.”

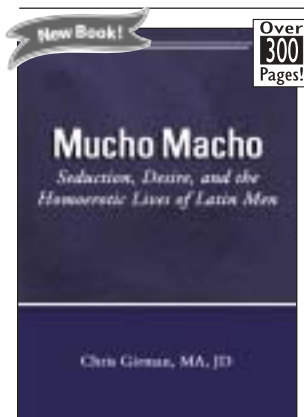

—Professor Peter Aggleston, Director, Thomas Coram Research Unit, Institute of Education, University of London, United Kingdom

Icelandic Lives: The Queer Experience explores the lives of gays, lesbians, and bisexuals living in Iceland through a series of in-depth interviews culled from many hours of research over a two-year period. The results touch on a variety of themes, including the experience of growing up gay, the coming-out process, and everyday gay life in Iceland. These straightforward oral histories reflect the thoughts of Icelandic gay men and women toward love and relationships, their views on the issues that affect their lives, and their outlook for the future.

A new view of the nuances of same-sex male sexuality in Latin America!

Mucho Macho

Seduction, Desire, and the Homoerotic Lives of Latin Men

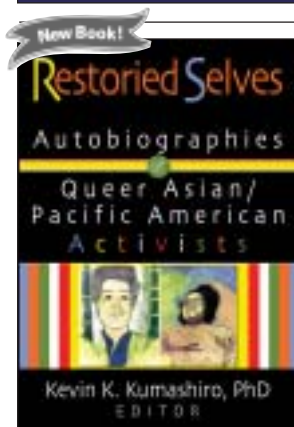

Chris Girman, MA, JD

Austin, Texas

This book explores the concepts—and illuminates the realities—of macho and machismo from the unique perspective of a gay sociologist who is also a sexual tourist. Unlike most of the scholars who have written about same-sex Latino male attraction, author/ethnographer Chris Girman has experienced it firsthand. In his travels in South, Central, and North America, Chris has had intimate encounters with dozens of Latino men. He shares both his research and his personal experience in Mucho Macho.

The real story of growing up queer as an Asian/Pacific American!

Restored Selves

Autobiographies of Queer Asian/Pacific American Activists

Edited by Kevin K. Kumashiro, PhD

Director, Center for Anti-Oppressive Education, El Cerrito, California

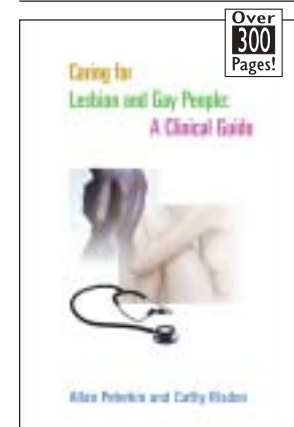

“MOVING, SPIRITED. . . This book will be A SOURCE OF INSPIRATION AND AFFIRMATION for activists, scholars, and most of all, for young queer Asian/Pacific Americans searching for their own place in society.”

—Martin F. Manalansan IV, PhD, Assistant Professor, Department of Anthropology, University of Illinois - Urbana-Champaign

Restored Selves: Autobiographies of Queer Asian/Pacific American Activists presents the first-person accounts of 20 activists—life stories that work against common stereotypes, shattering misconceptions and dispelling misinformation. These autobiographies challenge familial and cultural expectations and values that have traditionally forced queer Asian/Pacific Americans into silent shame because of their sexual orientation and/or ethnicity. Authors share not only their experiences growing up but also how those experiences led them to become social activists, speaking out against oppression.

Caring for Lesbian and Gay People

A Clinical Guide

Allan Peterkin, MD

Assistant Professor, Department of Psychiatry and Department of Community and Family Medicine, University of Toronto

Cathy Risdon, MD

Associate Professor and David Braley and Nancy Gordon Chair in Family Medicine, McMaster University

“A WELCOME CONTRIBUTION IN A FIELD WITH FEW RESOURCES, especially for the practitioner who wants to provide the BEST POSSIBLE CARE FOR THE LESBIAN OR GAY PATIENT. . . WOULD BE OF GREAT BENEFIT to all clinicians. For those who care about and care for the lesbian and gay community, it is a resource WELL WORTH THE INVESTMENT.”

—JAMA (Journal of the American Medical Association)

Caring for Lesbian and Gay People is the first medical guide to offer busy clinicians practical, accessible, and evidence-based information to help in the care of lesbian and gay patients. Based on more than twenty years of patient care and contributions to medical education and community development, this indispensable resource will greatly heighten the quality of care that clinicians, health care practitioners, and educators can provide to their patients, and will in turn provide patients and consumers with the means to take an active role in their own health care.

Latina Lesbian Writers and Artists

Edited by
Maria Dolores Costa, PhD

Associate Professor, California State University,
Los Angeles

- "A FASCINATING JOURNEY through the Latina lesbian experience."
- —Susana Cook, Performance Artist and Playwright
- With this book, you'll explore the work of the most significant contemporary
- Latina lesbian writers, artists, and performers in the United States, Latin America,
- and Spain. This book presents and analyzes literature, art, and poetry by women
- who, despite markedly different backgrounds and experiences, are all strongly
- influenced by the concept of lesbian identity. In addition to an A-to-Z overview
- of modern Latina lesbian writers, artists, and performers, you'll find thoughtful
- examinations of the work of Alina Troyano (Carmelita Tropicana), Gloria
- Anzaldúa, Griselda Gambaro, and other noted Latina lesbian writers and artists.

Men, Homosexuality, and the Gods

An Exploration into the Religious Significance of Male Homosexuality in World Perspective

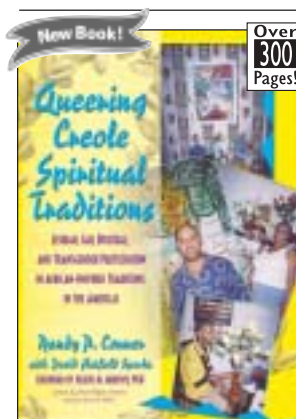

Ronald E. Long, PhD

Assistant Professor, Program in Religion,
Hunter College, City University of New York

Men, Homosexuality, and the Gods: An Exploration into the Religious Significance of Male Homosexuality in World Perspective is an eye-opening look at a representative sampling of religions and their edicts concerning gay sex. This book examines the origins of historic holy directives involving homosexuality—whether forbidden, tolerated, or mandatory—and establishes a link between theology, sex paradigms, and the sensitive issue of masculinity. This intriguing text calls for a new approach to gay rights as a freedom of religion issue and shows how the modern homophile movements redefine “masculinity” to obliterate the stigma of being a sexually receptive man. Easy-to-read and free of technical language, this volume is for anyone who has a professional, academic, or personal interest in theology and homosexuality.

Reclaiming the Sacred

The Bible in Gay and Lesbian Culture, Second Edition

Edited by

Raymond-Jean Frontain, PhD

Professor of English and Interdisciplinary Studies,
University of Central Arkansas

“A VALUABLE CONTRIBUTION to Biblical studies and the GLBT community’s unique contributions to that field.”

—The Book Nook (GayToday.com, TWN, Boston Bay)

This long-awaited follow-up examines the appropriation and/or subversion of the authority of the Judeo-Christian Bible by gay and lesbian writers. The book highlights two prevalent trends in gay and lesbian literature—a transgressive approach that challenges the authority of the Bible when used as an instrument of oppression, and an appropriative technique that explores how the Bible contributes to defining gay and lesbian spirituality.

Speaking for Our Lives

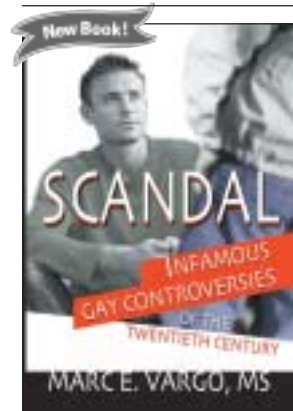

Historic Speeches and Rhetoric for Gay and Lesbian Rights (1892-2000)

Edited by
Robert B. Ridinger, MA, MLS

Chair, Electronic Information Resources Management, Northern Illinois University, De Kalb

“IMPORTANT PRIMARY SOURCE MATERIAL that might otherwise, like so much of gay and lesbian history, have been lost.”
—Jim Van Buskirk, MLS, Program Manager, James C. Hormel Gay & Lesbian Center, San Francisco Public Library

This landmark volume collects more than a hundred years of the most important public rhetoric on gay and lesbian subjects. In the days when homosexuality was mentioned only in whispers, a few brave souls stood up to speak for the rights of sexual minorities. Their stirring words have finally been gathered together, along with the political manifestos, broadsheets, and performance pieces of the gay and lesbian liberation movement. Speaking for Our Lives: Historic Speeches and Rhetoric for Gay and Lesbian Rights (1892-2000) includes a brief commentary introducing each piece, which discusses the author, the occasion, and the political and social contexts in which it first appeared.

Scandal

Infamous Gay Controversies of the Twentieth Century

Marc E. Vargo, MS

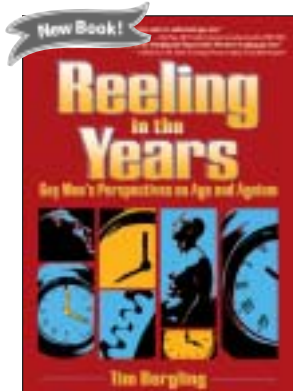

Psychological Associate III, Hammond Developmental Center, Hammond, Louisiana

“HIGHLY READABLE . . . informative for people wanting to learn about some all-too-often neglected stories. Recommended for larger public and academic libraries with extensive gay and lesbian collections.”
—Library Journal

Scandal: Infamous Gay Controversies of the Twentieth Century is a compelling and thorough examination of same-sex controversies that range from accusations of obscenity and libel to espionage, treason, murder, and political dissent, with penalties that included censorship, imprisonment, deportation, and death. In each case, scandal brought the subject of homosexuality into public view in an explosive, sensational manner, stalling (and sometimes reversing) any progress made by the gay and lesbian community in mainstream society. Author Marc E. Vargo details the dignity, courage, and wisdom displayed by the gay men and women under attack in the face of public judgment.

Sissyphobia: Gay Men and Effeminate Behavior (See page 25)

“A MUST-READ FOR EVERY GAY MAN, anyone who loves gay men, and anyone who wants to understand gay men. . . . An exceptional contribution to the gay aging literature. Bergling is a wonderful storyteller. . . . His style is wonderfully accessible and engaging.”

—Mark Pope, EdD, President, American Counseling Association (2003-2004); Associate Professor, Division of Counseling & Family Therapy, University of Missouri-Saint Louis

Reeling in the Years: Gay Men's Perspectives on Age and Ageism examines the “two tribe” mentality about age that divides the gay male community into “us” and “them.” Tim Bergling, author of the critically acclaimed Sissyphobia (Haworth), uses polls, surveys, and interviews conducted with men from five different age groups to illustrate the gay community's attitudes toward age and the rites of passage associated with certain age groups.

Sociological Analysis of Aging

The Gay Male Perspective

J. Michael Cruz, PhD

Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, University of Southern Maine, Portland

“IMPORTANT READING for those concerned with social policy as well as those studying sexuality and the life course.”

—Bertram J. Cohler, PhD, William Rainey Harper Professor, The Committee on Human Development and the Departments of Psychology, The University of Chicago

Sociological Analysis of Aging: The Gay Male Perspective is an exploratory study of the life changes homosexual and bisexual men experience as they age. This unique book presents in-depth, qualitative interviews with gay men, aged 55 and older, focusing on their physical, mental, and social needs. More than one hundred men offer first-hand perceptions on the unique problems they face with regards to employment/retirement, housing, health and well-being, relationships, and how they function within (or without) a social support system.

Bisexuality and Transgenderism

InterSEXions of the Others

Edited by Jonathan Alexander, PhD

Associate Professor, English and Comparative Literature, University of Cincinnati, Ohio

Karen Yescavage, PhD

Associate Professor, Psychology and Women's Studies, Department of Psychology, Colorado State University, Pueblo

Bisexuality and Transgenderism: InterSEXions of the Others is the first book devoted exclusively to exploring the common ground—and the important differences—between bisexuality and transgenderism. Combining the work of scholars and activists, professional writers and lay people, it provides a cross-section of ideas, thoughts, feelings, and insights from a variety of contributors who are committed to understanding—and deepening our understanding—of gender and sexuality. You'll find scholarly essays, narratives, poetry, and a revealing interview with four male-to-female transsexuals, two of whom are married to women who also participate in the discussion. In addition, the book includes insightful chapters by well-known advocates of transgenderism, including Jamison "James" Green, Coralee Drechsler, and Matthew Kailey.

Women and Bisexuality

A Global Perspective

Edited by

Serena Anderlini-D'Onofrio

Associate Professor, Department of Humanities, University of Puerto Rico at Mayaguez

"WHAT A FASCINATING ARRAY OF WRITING is contained within the covers of this book! Writers from four continents use a wide range of methodologies to look at the varied lives and realities of bisexual women."

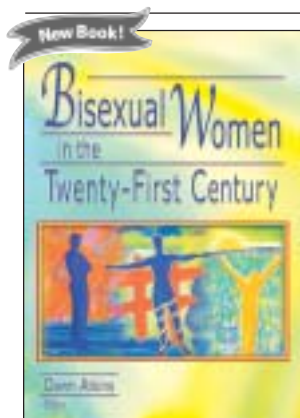

—Robyn Ochs, EdM, Editor, Bisexual Resource Center, Boston, Massachusetts

Women and Bisexuality: A Global Perspective reflects the growing contribution bisexuals, and especially bisexual women, make to queer culture on an international level. This unique book presents thoughtful essays, studies, and reviews that combine to help develop a language that reflects the reality of bisexuality from a feminine/feminist viewpoint. Authors map the inroads made by bisexual studies into conventional disciplines, including anthropology, sociology, health, literature, film, history, and biography, and analyze the situations of bisexual women in areas as diverse as France, North America, Germany, Australia, and Africa.

The honest truth about growing up with a gay or lesbian parent!

How It Feels to Have a Gay or Lesbian Parent

A Book by Kids for Kids of All Ages

Judith E. Snow, MA

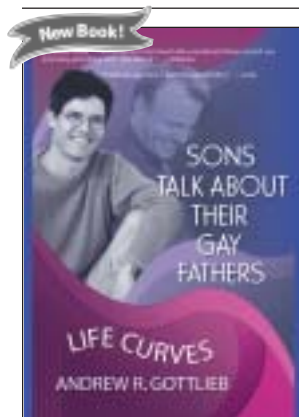

Limited Licensed Psychologist, Certified Addictions Counselor, Diplomate of Clinical Forensic Counseling, JS Psychological Services, Grand Rapids, Michigan

“INVALUABLE for anyone wanting to know what happens to children of parents who come out as gay, lesbian, or bisexual—and the complex context in which their dealing with this challenge takes place. THE VALUE OF THIS BOOK IS ITS SPOTLIGHT ON THE CHILDREN, often forgotten in the crisis of a married or divorced parent's coming out.”

—Amity Pierce Buxton, PhD, Executive Director, Straight Spouse Network

How It Feels to Have a Gay or Lesbian Parent: A Book by Kids for Kids of All Ages gives voice to the thoughts, feelings, and experiences of children, adolescents, and young adults who have a gay or lesbian parent. In their own words, they talk openly and candidly about how and when they learned of their parent's sexual orientation and the effect it had on them—and their families. Their stories echo themes of prejudice and harassment, conflict and confusion, adaptation and adjustment, and hope for tolerance and a family that can exist in harmony.

How do sons feel—and do their lives change—after learning their dads are gay?

Sons Talk About Their Gay Fathers

Life Curves

Andrew R. Gottlieb, PhD

Project Director, National Development and Research Institutes, Inc., New York City

“An IMPORTANT book in the field of gay family studies.”

—Fritz Klein, MD, Editor of the Journal of Bisexuality; Author of The Bisexual Option; Co-Editor of Bisexual and Gay Husbands: Their Stories, Their Words

This book looks at how sons react to learning that their fathers are gay. It shows, over time, how this has changed their family relationships and their lives as a whole. Written with a minimum of jargon, Sons Talk About Their Gay Fathers: Life Curves is both accessible to beginners and relevant to more advanced researchers and practitioners. It draws from a wide range of literary, popular, and psychological sources and includes a reference section and an interview guide.

A single gay man's guide to adoption!

Fatherhood for Gay Men

An Emotional and Practical Guide to Becoming a Gay Dad

Kevin McGarry

Arlington, Virginia

“Offers very realistic insight into the thinking and the processes involved in becoming a gay Dad in today's society.”

—Bob Page, Founder and CEO, Replacements, Ltd., and Dale Frederiksen, Vice President of Product Information, Replacements, Ltd.

Fatherhood for Gay Men is the story of one man's journey down the road less traveled—a single gay man raising his adopted sons. Author Kevin McGarry recounts his passage into parenthood after years of having his natural fathering instincts stifled by the limits—real and perceived—of being gay.

Dirty Young Men and Other Gay Stories

Joseph Itiel
San Francisco, California

ALSO BY ITIEL:
Escapades of a Gay Traveler and
Escort Tales (See page 32)

“A WELCOME BREATH OF HONESTY in a world that continues to deny the breadth of gay male sexual activity. . . . An easy-to-read collection of real-life sexual situations.”

—Daniel Curzon, Author of Something You Do in the Dark

To some gay men, a shapely, youthful body is the ultimate turn-on. Others find the eroticism they crave in the experienced hands of an older, more mature man. Though he is now past seventy, author Joseph Itiel's libido remains as active as ever. He writes, “At the age of fifty-five, my daydreams started to become a reality. Finally, I became a sex object, a ‘man toy,’ to cute guys much younger than myself.” In Dirty Young Men and Other Gay Stories, this experienced “sexual tourist” lays it all on the line, candidly revealing the intimate details of his erotic liaisons with young men from all walks of life—and from around the globe!

Gay Men's Sexual Stories

Getting It!

Edited by Robert Reynolds, PhD
Faculty of Education, University of Sydney,
New South Wales, Australia
Gerard Sullivan, PhD
Associate Professor, University of Sydney,
New South Wales, Australia

“FASCINATING. . . . Explores the diversity in gay men's sexual lives. The stories are in turn moving, funny, sexy, witty, thoughtful, painful, and delightful. They are A JOY TO READ. . . . This book shows the many different ways there are of being sexual—and the many different ways of realizing our humanity.”

—Jeffrey Weeks, PhD, Professor of Sociology, London South Bank University; Author of Making Sexual History, Same Sex Intimacies, and Sexualities and Society: A Reader

This book is an investigation of the role of sex in the everyday lives of gay men. With emphasis on psychosocial and emotional context, the contributors explicitly describe their sex lives and sexual attitudes in a variety of situations. In the book's final chapters, the editors share their expertise and insights into these narratives and into the academic literature on gay men at midlife.

Getting It On Online

Cyberspace, Gay Male
Sexuality, and Embodied
Identity

John Edward Campbell
Doctoral Candidate, Annenberg School for Communication, University of Pennsylvania,
Philadelphia

“THIS IS QUEER CYBERSTUDIES AT ITS BEST—fond, critical, and illuminating. . . . Puts to rest awkward and untenable assertions about disembodiment in cyberspace.”

—Lisa Henderson, PhD, Associate Professor of Communication,
University of Massachusetts at Amherst

Getting It On Online: Cyberspace, Gay Male Sexuality, and Embodied Identity examines the online embodied experiences of gay men. At once scholarly and sensual, this unique book is the result of a three-year ethnographic study chronicling the activities on three distinct social scenes in the world of Internet Relay Chat (IRC)—virtual spaces constructed by gay men for the erotic exploration of the male body. Examining the vital role the body plays in defining these online spaces offers insight into how gay men negotiate their identities through emerging communication technologies.

The Male Body
Beauty Business

Michael Rivers
Bloomington, Minnesota

“This book OPENS AN INTRIGUING DOOR INTO THE LIVES OF MALE MODELS, PORN STARS, PROFESSIONAL PHOTOGRAPHERS, BODY BUILDERS, DRAG PERFORMERS, and others who make their living either producing or being the iconography of the male body. Rivers has done a wonderful job gathering a diverse array of insightful, articulate men to interview.”

—Kerwin Kay, Editor of Male Lust: Pleasure, Power, and Transformation

I'll Cover You in $20 Bills is an evocative look into the lives of men who make their living promoting the male image. This groundbreaking book profiles the lives of seventeen men—working in professions ranging from plastic surgeon to porn star—who are responsible for many of the male images we see decorating the media today. I'll Cover You in $20 Bills breaks through the stereotypes associated with their professions and uncovers the men behind them.

Gay men discuss the physical, psychological, and emotional costs of freedom of choice!

Gay Men and Anal Eroticism

Tops, Bottoms, and Versatiles

Steven G. Underwood

Writer, Provincetown, Massachusetts

“If you enjoy coming-out stories, this book has plenty. All of the interview subjects describe their sexual initiations, and most reflect on how those experiences may have shaped their future sexual preferences.”

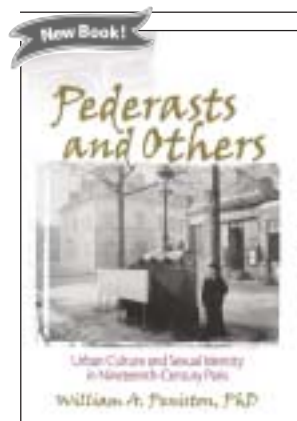

—Gay & Lesbian Review Worldwide

Gay Men and Anal Eroticism: Tops, Bottoms, and Versatiles is a remarkably candid collection of frank and forthright interviews with 21 gay men on one of society's most persistent taboos. Ranging in age from 21 to 65, the men talk about the role anal sex plays in their lives and relationships and their choices to act as insertive (“top”) or receptive (“bottom”) partners—or both (“versatile”).

Pederasts and Others

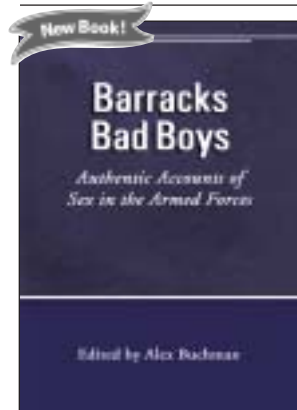

Urban Culture and Sexual Identity in Nineteenth-Century Paris

William A. Peniston, PhD

Manager of Library and Archives, The Newark Museum, Newark, New Jersey

A unique social history, Pederasts and Others: Urban Culture and Sexual Identity in Nineteenth-Century Paris is a valuable addition to the growing field of gay and lesbian studies. The book examines the interaction between the city's male homosexual subculture and Parisian authority figures who attempted to maintain political and social order during the early years of the French Third Republic by using outdated laws against public indecency and sexual assault to treat same-sex sexuality as a crime. Faced with a constant cycle of surveillance, harassment, and arrest, the city's gay men survived the hostile urban environment by forming a community of support that had a widespread and lasting influence on the development of modern sexual identities.

Barracks Bad Boys

Authentic Accounts of Sex in the Armed Forces

Edited by Alex Buchman

Editor, A Night in the Barracks, and Former U.S. Marine, San Diego, California

Building on the success of his extraordinary debut—the critically acclaimed, #1 “men’s interest” bestseller A Night in the Barracks—former U.S. Marine Alex Buchman presents a spellbinding, startlingly unique collection of erotic memoirs by or about “bad boys” in the Armed Forces. Boldly defying the conventions of gay male “one-handed reading,” the unembellished chronicles Buchman brings us from the intensely homoerotic secret world of men in uniform are more erotically charged than any porn-by-numbers fantasy.

Erotic Adventures of a Gay Liberation Pioneer

A memoir by Jack Nichols

Editor, GayToday.com

“Gay liberation pioneer Jack Nichols’ autobiographical sexual adventures (1961–1964) are MORE EXCITING THAN THE WILDEST OF TODAY’S FICTION.”

—Donn Teal, Author of The Gay Militants: 1971 & 1994

Jack Nichols is now known as a founding-father of the gay and lesbian liberation movement, editor of GAY (the first gay weekly newspaper), co-founder of the Mattachine Societies of Washington, D.C. and Florida, and a warrior who broke ground for gay equality. In his early twenties, however, he was dedicated to romance, ardor, and wanderlust—living the life of a gypsy and making love with abandon. In a time when gay men had no need to fear life-threatening STDs, sex was rampant—yet it was also a prudish time when macho images and proper etiquette affected romantic relationships even among gay men. Marvel at this uncensored look at gay American life in the early sixties!

Through It Came Bright Colors

A novel by Trebor Healey

Fiction Writer and Poet, Los Angeles, California

A 2004 InsightOut.com Violet Quill Award Finalist!

Outstanding Reviews!

"Trebor Healey's compelling tale of crisis around a family illness and an unexpected first gay love is poetic and reflective, ANGRY, ROWDY, FUNNY, AND TRIUMPHANT."

—Felice Picano, Author of Ambidextrous: The Secret Lives of Children, Men Who Loved Me, and A House on the Ocean, A House on the Bay

"SWEET, SAD, GRITTY, AND REAL. Healey delivers coming out as apocalypse—tender, destructive, punk."

—Michelle Tea, Author of The Chelsea Whistle

"A VIVID AND MULTI-HUED STORY of coming of age, coming out, and coming to terms with loss. Healey, a poet, turns his eye to lyrical prose . . ."

—Greg Shapiro, Windy City Media Group, Chicago

"A GRITTY NOVEL that avoids two gay novel traps: the old 'homosexual sad ending' cliché and the fairy tale happy ending."

—The Book Nook (GayToday.com, TWN the weekly news, Boston Bay)

"Trebor Healey understands the beauty and cruelty that spill forth when men dare to express love to one another. He holds up a magnifying glass to the human heart, and his gaze is unblinking."

—K. M. Soehnlein, Author of The World of Normal Boys

"LOVE HURTS, LOVE HEALS—that's the crystalline message at the core of Trebor Healey's complex, accomplished coming-of-age story."

—Richard Labonte, Reviewer, Book Marks and Q Syndicate

About the Book

Through It Came Bright Colors is the story of Neill Cullane, a closeted, conflicted 21-year-old who lives in two worlds, light years and a short drive of his beat-up VW bug apart. At home, he's the dutiful son of Frank and Grace, and devoted brother to Peter, whose battle with a cruel, disfiguring cancer pulls the Cullane family together, however reluctantly. But in the shadows of the San Francisco underworld, Neill finds release with his secret lover Vince Malone, a beautiful junkie/philosopher/thief whose burning desire for truth lights the path Neill always knew he'd travel. Through Vince, Neill learns about honesty and love and finds the courage to confront his family in the face of tragedy and loss.

—Frontiers Magazine

About the Book

While drunk at a party, Chad Sobran falls off a balcony and breaks his wrist. His homophobic brother Martin, who has been stalking him, convinces the EMTs and then the Emergency Room doctors that the fall was a suicidal jump. Since childhood, Martin has nurtured a violent and obsessive habit of tormenting Chad for being gay. When Chad comes to, he finds himself locked in the hospital's psychiatric unit for a “three-day observation.”

In the hospital, Chad meets Jonathan Fairbanks, a fellow patient. Jonathan survived the murder/suicide of his wealthy parents but ended up in the psych unit afterwards, suffering from severe post-traumatic stress. They hit it off, but there are questions about Jonathan's involvement in the deaths of two other patients. The police are investigating, and Jonathan appears to be their prime suspect!

Chad and Jonathan's romance becomes a journey of psychological tension, intrigue, and suspense that takes them on a whirlwind chase from DC to the Carolinas and across the Atlantic—will they ever find the peace they crave?

The Tenth Man

A novel by E. William Podojil

Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Jack Barillo is losing friends—the hard way. A cunning killer named Lucifer is savaging the beautiful young men from Jack's past, eliminating them with a surgeon's touch, one by one. From Lincoln Park in Chicago, to the spire mansions and tradesmen houses of Amsterdam, to the rounded hills and uncharted mountains of the Le Marche region in Italy, the manhunter ruthlessly stalks and destroys his prey with horrifying precision. And each victim brings him one step closer to Jack.

Whose Eye Is On Which Sparrow?

A novel by Robert Taylor

Blue Hill, Maine

When a privileged young doctor falls in love with a handsome black man, he searches for the courage to follow his heart down an unexpected path, leaving behind a wife, children, and a promising political career. Can Dr. Brendan Garrison give up his white-bread world of carpools, cocktail parties, and charity events for a future with Jonathan Miles? Whose Eye Is On Which Sparrow? reaches across the boundaries of class, culture, race, and sexuality to tell the story of the difficult choices that can complicate a simple love.

Backvolumes of Haworth journals are available. Please add 40% to current appropriate subscription rate. Postage and handling are included.

JOURNAL SAMPLE COPY POLICY

Samples will be sent at no charge to libraries and faculty members. Please be selective in requesting free samples of journals. Free samples may be sent on the discretion of the Publisher if quantities asked for are judged to be excessive. Limit: 2 issues per journal. Do not request specific issues. Send request to Sample Copy Department, The Haworth Press, Inc., 10 Alice Street, Binghamton, NY 13904–1580.

RETURNS POLICY

- Items purchased by individuals may be returned within 30 days of invoice if the items are in saleable condition.
- Cassettes and videos in saleable, undamaged condition may be returned within 30 days from date of receipt.
- Items purchased by bookstores may be returned up to 1 year from invoice if in saleable condition.
- Books that are out of print or in damaged unsaleable condition will be returned at the expense of the customer.
- Written permission is required. To receive permission, write to The Haworth Press, Inc., 10 Alice Street, Binghamton, New York 13904–1580. Indicate title, author, and quantity to be returned along with a copy of the original invoice.
- Bookseller is responsible for all charges incurred in making returns unless the return is the result of an error on our part.
- A credit memo will be sent. Do not deduct credit from another payment until the credit memo is received. No cash refunds on bookstore/jobber orders. Credits will remain on file for use against future orders.
- All claims for nonreceipt of items or claims for items damaged in transit must be made within 30 days of invoice, no exceptions.
- Return all items to The Haworth Press, Inc., 72 Grosset Drive, Kirkwood, NY 13795.

TEXTBOOK EXAMINATION POLICY

Textbooks are available for classroom adoption consideration on a no-risk basis. Please write to us on your institutional letterhead, indicating the textbook which you would like to examine as well as course title, current text, enrollment, and decision date. We will ship and bill on a 60-day examination basis and will cancel your invoice if you decide to adopt the book! We will always bill at the lowest available price, such as our special "5+ text price." Please remember to order softcover where available. Send your request to Textbook Department, The Haworth Press, Inc., 10 Alice Street, Binghamton, NY 13904–1580. You can also request an exam copy by visiting our Web site at: <http://www.HaworthPress.com/books/textexam.asp> (We cannot provide examination copies of books not published by The Haworth Press, Inc., or its imprints.)
